.....RESPONDENT(S)

Petition under Article 226 of the constitution of India praying that in the circumstances stated in the Affidavit filed herein the High Court will be pleased to issue an appropriate Writ, order or direction more particularly one in the nature of Writ of Mandamus declaring the action of the respondents ignoring the teachers and Ayas worked in Balavikas Centres for the appointment of Anganwadi Teacher and worker is illegal, arbitrary and contrary to the principles of natural justice and Article 21 of the Constitution of India.

Counsel for the Petitioner:MR.V.RAGHU

Counsel for the Respondent Nos.1and 2: GP FOR WOMEN AND CHILD WELFARE

Counsel for the Respondent No.3: GP FOR EDUCATION

The Court at the admission stage made the following O R D E R:

This writ petition is filed to declare the action of the respondents in ignoring the teachers and Ayas worked in Balavikas Centres for the appointment of Anganwadi teachers and workers as illegal, arbitrary and contrary to the principals of natural justice.

Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Pleader for Women and Child Welfare.

Appropriate decision has to be taken by the respondents in accordance with law for making appointments of Anganwadi teachers and workers. The petitioner seems to have made representation on 21.03.2005 to the respondents. Therefore, without entering into merits of the case, the writ petition is disposed of directing the respondents to take appropriate decision on the representation of the petitioner dated 21.03.2005 and pass appropriate orders within a period of six weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. No order as to costs.
